TWO INDIANS ARE INDICTED FOR ASSAULT

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Trial of John Enfield, an Indian, charged with assaulting a 15-year-old Indian girl on the Fort Apache Indian reservation, was started in the Federal court yesterday morning but continued until today on account of the absence of witnesses.

Enfield and another Indian, Sam Crawford, were indicted on three counts each by the Federal grand jury. The indictment against Enfield accuses him of assaulting Florence Lee on May 20 last, while the girl was a charge of the reservation. Enfield is alleged to have forced his intimacy with the girl by threatening to beat her.

Crawford is alleged to have committed similar offenses on May 23rd.

NO CHANGES IN POSITIONS OF CANDIDATES

MRS. RUFFNER LEADING BY 239 VOTES; STUKEY AND DREW SURE OF BEING NOMINATED.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The positions of the leaders in the race for county and State office nominations, as published yesterday morning, were unchanged last night when all but five precincts in the county had reported returns from the primary election. These returns give Mrs. Ruffner a total of 1,270 votes, a plurality of 239 over E. A. McSwiggin, her opponent for the nomination of county recorder on the Democratic ticket.

"I'm beaten," said McSwiggin yesterday. "I ran the best race I could but now that I am out of it I will devote my time to supporting the candidacy of Mrs. Ruffner for election in November."

C. C. Stukeley and Joe Drew are the Democratic nominees for supervisors. Stukeley is leading with 996 votes and Drew is following closely with 921. Fred Mickle is running third with 787 votes, 10 ahead of Henry J. Suder, incumbent, and Bert Tilton is last with 693 votes.

Sheriff Joe Young is assured of the nomination of sheriff on the Democratic ticket with 1,257 votes compared to 941 for Colonel Fred Bowler. P. J. Keohane has 1,296 votes for the nomination of county treasurer and Chas. K. Scholey 867.

With a majority of 57 votes over O. F. Ortel, J. W. Sullivan is practically certain of being the fourth assembly nominee on the Democratic ticket. The other three nominees will be A. A. Johns, M. A. Perkins and J. M. Mahoney. C. H. Rutherford, with 1,424 votes, is leading the race for the nomination of State senator, with Morris Goldwater second, with 1,246, and Nathan Shutz last with 834.

W. Curtis Miller, Democratic candidate for re-nomination as county superintendent of schools, polled the heaviest vote of any candidate for a county office, 1,684. J. H. Morgan, candidate to succeed P. W. O'Sullivan as county attorney, polled the second heaviest vote, 1,668.

B. W. Mowday was nominated for sheriff on the Republican ticket. He has 390 votes, 127 more than "Bert" Lee. Judge Kibbey, Republican candidate for the nomination of United States senator, carried the county with 434 votes over Judge Stilwell, who received but 178.

Governor Hunt, with 1,492 votes, carried Yavapai over Olney by a little less than a two-to-one majority. The other State officers continued to lead in the order named yesterday.
